The above-captioned matter came before the Montana Human Rights Commission (Commission) on November 21, 2002. The Commission considered Charging Party's objection to the dismissal of the complaint. Oral argument was not requested.

After a review of the record, the Commission concludes that the Human Rights Bureau (Bureau) properly dismissed the matter. The record supports a determination that Charging Party, Darlene Lott, was unable to establish by a preponderance of the evidence that she had been subject to a sexually hostile work environment. See § 49-2-504(1)(a), MCA. Consequently, the Commission determines that the Bureau did not abuse its discretion when it issued a Notice of Dismissal. 24.9.1714(3), ARM.

Charging Party will have 90 days after the receipt of this order to petition a district court in the district where the alleged violation occurred for the appropriate relief. § 49-2-509(5), MCA and 24.9.1717(5), ARM. If Charging Party fails to commence a civil action within 90 days, the claim is time barred. Id.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, that Charging Party's objection is overruled and notice of dismissal is affirmed.

Dated this _____ day of November 2002

Mr. Gary Hindoien, Chair
Montana Human Rights Commission
